

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?

Does

What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Political juggernauts: A quantitative analysis of candidates in the 2019 lak sabha elections

The Lok Sabha is composed of representatives of people chosen by direct election on the basis of Universal Adult Suffrage.

With over 900 million eligible voters, it was one of the largest democratic exercises globally

The 2019 Lok Sabha elections were one of the largest democratic exercises in the world, with over 900 million eligible voters.

The election should be conducted fairly.

People should think independently, and no one should be forced to support a particular party.

The government should make people aware of the value of each and every vote.

The BJP won 303 seats out of 545, securing a clear majority. The Indian National Congress (INC) and other regional parties were the main opposition.

The elections also highlighted the increasing participation of women in politics.

Narendra Modi was reelected as Prime Minister of India, solidifying his position as a prominent political figure.

Feminism has gradually gained prominence in politics, making it more inclusive and welcoming.

It's a fresh and new party taking on the responsibility to lead our country down the right path

We expect that India's economic growth will be higher in the future.